

Climate Change

Visit rosiesworld.co.nz/our-world to find the missing words.

Once you have finished the sentences, find the hidden words in the puzzle!

1. There are lots of ways farmers are protecting water, but three of the main ways are fencing off _____, riparian planting and creating wetlands.
2. Plants that are used along the sides of waterways include flax, cabbage trees, toe toe, hebe, _____, and much more!
3. When the plants grow, they provide _____ for the stream. This keeps the stream at a good temperature to create the best habitat for native insects.
4. Wetlands help protect land from _____ damage by collecting and holding surface water and releasing it slowly over time.
5. Wetlands trap _____ (sediment) which helps to keep waterways healthy and clean.
6. Did you know that just over _____ of waterways on New Zealand dairy farms are fenced?
7. As well as fencing off waterways, farmers also build bridges and _____ on farms.

f	q	r	y	n	k	g	n	k	y	k	t	%	g
l	w	a	t	e	r	w	a	y	s	y	7	t	v
o	y	u	s	h	a	d	e	k	o	9	l	v	z
o	c	u	l	v	e	r	t	s	i	b	w	r	g
d	w	a	t	b	r	o	a	d	l	e	a	f	v

